

Terms & Conditions for claiming your reward

1. The referee must be an individual who has previously registered with NQSolicitors.com as a candidate and who is/has been a bona fide, genuine candidate for placement with NQSolicitors.com or who has been designated as an approved referee by NQSolicitors.com as an approved referee (Referee).
2. A candidate who has registered with NQSolicitors.com for the first time and been placed by NQSolicitors.com in either a permanent position or a contract position for at least six months' duration is a referred candidate (Referred Candidate). A candidate who is placed in a temporary position by NQSolicitors.com does not qualify as a Referred Candidate.
3. Subject as set out below, the Referee is eligible to receive vouchers up to the value of £500 if he/she has referred a Referred Candidate who is placed in a permanent position and up to £250 for a Referred Candidate who is placed in a contract position of at least six months' duration by NQSolicitors.com.
4. It is up to the Referee to claim his/her reward from NQSolicitors.com following the placement of a Referred Candidate within six months of the placement of the Referred Candidate by emailing info@NQSolicitors.com with their full details (including the name of the Referred Candidate and a postal address for the Referee to which vouchers can be sent). The Referee may also be able to choose whether the reward is payable in cash or vouchers, and, for the avoidance of doubt, any income tax liability (if any) is solely for the Referee and not NQSolicitors.com. Any applications for rewards made more than six months from the placement will only be entertained at the sole discretion of NQSolicitors.com.
5. The voucher/cash reward will not be issued/paid until:
 - a) The Hirer has paid the placement fee in full, and
 - b) The Referred Candidate has completed three months' service in the new position

For the avoidance of doubt, the reward will not be issued/paid if the Referred Candidate leaves the placement in respect of which the reward is claimed (for whatever reason) within three months of its commencement.
6. NQSolicitors.com reserves the right to verify the identity of anyone claiming the reward as a Referee. If it identifies any abuse of this reward scheme by persons creating bogus or fake candidate profiles or has reason at all to doubt the validity of the Referee's claim for the reward it is entitled to refuse to award the reward.
7. NQSolicitors.com reserves the right to change or withdraw the reward scheme at any time and shall notify this to potential Referees by an [announcement on its website]. Any change or withdrawal of the scheme shall not affect any claims for rewards validly made by Referees prior to such change/withdrawal.
